CLASSMATES : — In presenting my Sixth Report I have followed my usual custom of giving, so far as possible, a connected account of each classmate from time of graduation.

I infer, from the tardiness with which the responses to my circular came in, that many of you do not favor a report every three years, and I would suggest that no further report be printed until our twentieth anniversary.

At the suggestion of several I have printed with this report the names of those who were members of the class for a portion of the course, and shall soon issue a small supplement, giving all the information relating to them that I can obtain. To assist me in this work I request each of you to send me, at once, any information you can in regard to their whereabouts.

Kindly notify me of any errors, and advise me promptly of any changes in your addresses.

ALBERT M. BARNES,

Secretary.
